

THE CYNTHIANA NEWS.

VOL. XIX.

CYNTHIANA, KY., OCTOBER 21, 1869.

NO. 35

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

A. J. MOREY,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
TERMS.
The CYNTHIANA NEWS is published weekly
$2 per annum in advance.

Rates of Advertising
PER SQUARE OF 10 LINES.
One insertion	$1.00
Three months	4.00
Six months	7.00
Twelve months	10.00
Obituary Notices	0.50

Job Work executed with neatness
and dispatch, on reasonable terms.

The News has been incorporated by the Legislature of Kentucky and can publish Legal Advertisements.

Kentucky Central Rail Road.

UP TRAINS.
Leave Covington at 7:10 A. M. and 2:45 P. M.
Arrive at Cincinnati at 10:25 A. M. and 5:50
P. M.
Arrive at Lexington at 12:10 P. M. and
7:45 P. M.
Arrive at Nicholasville at 1:00 P. M. and 5:55 P. M.

DOWN TRAINS.
Leave Nicholasville at 4:45 A. M. and 1:30
P. M.
Leave Lexington at 7:00 A. M. and 2:30 P. M.
Arrive at Cincinnati at 8:35 A. M. and 4:05
P. M.
Arrive at Covington at 12:00 M. and 7:30
P. M.

Both trains run through between Covington and Nicholasville.

BUSINESS CARDS.

H. DREXILEUS,
MERCHANT TAILOR, AND DEALER IN Ready-Made Clothing and Gent's Furnishing Goods.
South-East corner Madison and Sixth streets, Covington, Ky.
Jan. 24, 1867.

A. WEBSTER. H. M. HODGES.
Webster and Hodges
PIKE STREET, Cynthiana, Ky.

Commission
MERCHANTS,
AND DEALERS IN Hardware, Groceries, Country Produce, &c.
QUEENSWARE
Glass and Pottery.
Show-rooms, Lexington, Ky., and Louisville, Ky.
RUFF and LUTHER Lumber Dealers
AND HOUSE BUILDERS.
BLACKSMITHS, CINCINNATI.
We have just received a stock of goods, and are able to sell on credit, and at the lowest prices. Every description of goods.
All kinds of family groceries.
Country produce.
Extraordinary cheap.
Bacon and lard.
Dried beef, dried fruits, Fresh ground meal,
Plaster Paris, Lime, Cement, &c., &c., &c.
Odds and ends of everything at less than the cost. If you wish to get your money back, come and see us.
sent 10-65-11

CONRAD FRIEDRICH. DAVID ROCH.
Conrad, Friedrich & Co.
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN Wines and Liquors,
Also Manufacturers of all kinds of Premium Vinegar.
612, 614 and 616 Central Avenue
Dec 17-11 Cincinnati, O.

G. R. SHARPE,
Manufacturer of PURE STRAIGHT COPPER WHISKY, Lair's Station,
Sixth District, Kentucky
march-11

M. REILLY,
Saddle & Harness Maker.
No. 9, Pike Street,
COVINGTON, KY.
July 15-20-11

SEPT. T. WALL
Has resumed the PRACTICE OF LAW,
Office—South-west corner of Madison and Pike streets.
Covington, Ky.
ap 11-

F. M. GRAY,

DEALER IN CONFECTIONARIES, TOYS,
AND
FANCY GOODS,
North side Pike street, Cynthiana,
febl-11

Lair, Redmon and Co.
DISTILLERS OF Pure Bourbon Whisky,
AT Berryville, near Cynthiana, Ky.
march-11

Jewelry Establishment,

Charles Asmann,
(Successor to G. W. McDonald.)
DREXILEUS BUILDINGS
MADISON STREET,
Covington, Kentucky.

HAVING taken the location
which I now occupy,
better than a year ago, and having fitted it up in a style becoming an establishment of the kind, I feel satisfied that I can please my customers from Harrison county, in price
and character of goods if they will call
and examine before purchasing elsewhere. I have the finest assortment of Watches ever
offered in any market, manufactured expressly for me, consisting of Gents' Gold and Silver Watches,
Ladies' Gold and Silver Watches,
Jewelry of all Styles,
Fine Diamond Sets,
Plated Ware of all Styles
Extra Table Cutlery, all prices,
Fancy Goods of all descriptions
All kinds of Silver Ware.

Call and see us.
feb-11.

Wellington and Cox,
SUCCESSOR TO
A. Seignette & Co.
Importers and Commission
MERCHANTS,
No. 74 BROAD STREET, NEW YORK.
Oct 6-11

Watches & Jewelry,
FANCY GOODS,
RICKEL and BAUM,
Pike Street, Cynthiana,
KENTUCKY.

Having taken the location
which I now occupy, I feel satisfied that I can please my
customers from Harrison county, in price
and character of goods if they will call
and examine before purchasing elsewhere. I
have the finest assortment of Watches ever
offered in any market, manufactured ex-
pressly for me, consisting of
Gents' Gold and Silver Watches,
Ladies' Gold and Silver Watches,
Jewelry of all Styles,
Fine Diamond Sets,
Plated Ware of all Styles
Extra Table Cutlery, all prices,
Fancy Goods of all descriptions
All kinds of Silver Ware.

Call and see us.
feb-11.

Wellington and Cox,
SUCCESSOR TO
A. Seignette & Co.
Importers and Commission
MERCHANTS,
No. 74 BROAD STREET, NEW YORK.
Oct 6-11

Watches & Jewelry,
FANCY GOODS,
RICKEL and BAUM,
Pike Street, Cynthiana,
KENTUCKY.

Having taken the location
which I now occupy, I
feel satisfied that I can please my
customers from Harrison county, in price
and character of goods if they will call
and examine before purchasing elsewhere. I
have the finest assortment of Watches ever
offered in any market, manufactured ex-
pressly for me, consisting of
Gents' Gold and Silver Watches,
Ladies' Gold and Silver Watches,
Jewelry of all Styles,
Fine Diamond Sets,
Plated Ware of all Styles
Extra Table Cutlery, all prices,
Fancy Goods of all descriptions
All kinds of Silver Ware.

Call and see us.
feb-11.

Wellington and Cox,
SUCCESSOR TO
A. Seignette & Co.
Importers and Commission
MERCHANTS,
No. 74 BROAD STREET, NEW YORK.
Oct 6-11

Watches & Jewelry,
FANCY GOODS,
RICKEL and BAUM,
Pike Street, Cynthiana,
KENTUCKY.

Having taken the location
which I now occupy, I
feel satisfied that I can please my
customers from Harrison county, in price
and character of goods if they will call
and examine before purchasing elsewhere. I
have the finest assortment of Watches ever
offered in any market, manufactured ex-
pressly for me, consisting of
Gents' Gold and Silver Watches,
Ladies' Gold and Silver Watches,
Jewelry of all Styles,
Fine Diamond Sets,
Plated Ware of all Styles
Extra Table Cutlery, all prices,
Fancy Goods of all descriptions
All kinds of Silver Ware.

Call and see us.
feb-11.

ELISTON HOUSE,

COVINGTON, KY.
The undersigned has leased the above
popular Hotel for a number of years, refitted and refurnished the same thoroughly, and is now open to the public.
J. S. NEVIN.
ap 15-3m.

HARDWARE
LONGMCOR & BRO.
PIKE STREET,
Cynthiana, Ky.

FOR THE FALL TRADE, OUR STOCK CONSISTS OF Westerholt's 1X1 Cutlery,
Jos. Rodgers & Son's Cutlery,
Wade & Butcher's Razors,
W. & S. Butcher's Imperial Files, Wilkinson's Sheep Shears,
Spear & Jackson's saws and chisels,
Peter Wright's Patent anvils and vises.

AND A FULL STOCK OF Walker's Standard Trace Chains,
Straight and twisted Butt Chains,
Stretchers, stay, breast and tongue chains,
Birmingham trace chains.
Carpenter's Tools of all kinds.
American Hardware of all Leading Makers.

AMONG WHICH ARE Winsted Hoe Co's Planters Hoes, of all kinds,
Harvey Mann's Axes, Lippincott's Axes,
Howell, Gano & Co's The A. X. Y.
Norwalk Lock Co's Locks,
Amos' Shovels and Spades.
Also, a full stock of the standard American Brand of ESSEX FILES,
Call and Examine Our Stock.
LONGMCOR & BROTHER.
Feb-27-11.

W. V. PRATHER,
Attorney at Law,
ME. OLIVET, KENTUCKY
Prompt attention paid to Collections
Aug 13-11

Railroad Exchange,
Augustus Wittman, Prop.
Cynthiana, Kentucky.
Having leased this popular house from Lewis Polymore, for a number of years,
and having cleaned and renovated the same is prepared to furnish accommodations to
of any kind, and at low prices.
The bar will be furnished with good liquors of all kinds, and fresh beer.
Give him a call.

FRANK P. BYRD. J. M. TAYLOR.
Merchants' Hotel.
(Formerly Denison House.)
FIFTH STREET, NEAR MAIN
CINCINNATI, O.
Bord & Taylor, Proprietors.
Successors to Galleher, Nelson, & Co.
April 1-11

HILL & SMITH,
WHOLESALE GROCERS,
AND
LIQUOR DEALERS.
No. 12 & 14 Pike street, Covington, Ky.
Storage and Commission
march 22-06

MRS. A. BURT, MANUFACTURER ON SHORT NOTICE
Ladies Braids, Curls, Crimps, Chignons, Fryettes, &c.
No. 33 East 5th Street,
COVINGTON, KY.

ANY DESIGN IN
HAIR JEWELRY MADE TO ORDER.
All work warranted as represented.
Aug. 5-24-11.

HENRY SCHUTZ, Confectionery & Bakery,
MAIN STREET,
FALMOUTH, KY.

HAS just opened one of the most magnificent Restaurants in Kentucky, where he will furnish his friends, and the public generally, with good meals at any hour, and drinks to suit. My Beer is cool.
Everybody is invited to call and hob-nob.
My CONFECTIONARY and BAKERY DEPARTMENT,
Is always well supplied with Fresh Candies, etc.

Wedding Parties supplied on short notice
I keep a full supply of Fresh Bread, Cakes,
&c. Call and see me.
June 6-11.

Resident Dentist, Cynthiana, Ky
Office on Pike street, over Cox's Dry Goods Store.
May 11-11.

C. L. DONNALLY.
Resident Dentist, Cynthiana, Ky
Office on Pike street, over Cox's Dry Goods Store.
May 11-11.

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, - - OCTOBER 21, 1869.
A. J. MOREY, Editor.

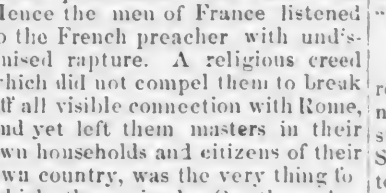

The Career of Father Hyacinthe.
How His Eloquence Captivated
the Citizens of Paris—The War Against Him.

[From the London Telegraph.]
Although still comparatively young,
Pere Hyacinthe stands among the
chief pulpit forces of the Romish
Church. Joining the order of barefooted Carmelites, he speedily won distinction by his scholarship and
his culture, no less than by his extraordinary power of speech. At an early age he promised to add a
bright star to the galaxy of French
pulpit eloquence. But, from the time of his first utterances, he was regarded with suspicious glances by leading dignitaries of Rome. He
was seen to be tainted with Liberalism. His words had not that tone of absolute submission to the Holy See
which is now coveted by the most powerful among the priests of France.
On France, almost as much as on Ireland, the Ultramontane party has laid its grasp. Much of the power
which the Jesuits have more than once lost in that country they have won back. Such dioceses as that of Orleans are ruled with a rod of iron,
in accordance with the dictates of
the Ultramontane creed; and the
prelates who represent the old Liberalism of France inspire in men like Bishop Dupanloup much the same
hostility with which the extreme
High Church dignitaries of England
regard their extreme Broad Church
rivals.

The Ultramontane party, however
have been forced to fight a hard battle with their Liberal foes. They have had to contend with a band of
men to whom nature had given extraordinary intellectual gifts, and
whose piety, it was impossible for
the jealousy of orthodox itself to
imagine. Such men as Lamennais, Lacordaire, and Montalembert, fused
that they could bridge over the
chasm between the theological creed
of the fifteenth century and the political creed of the nineteenth. In
the encounter Lamennais was so utterly overthrown by the members of his own church that he cut loose the
ties which bound him, not only to Rome, but to revealed religion itself.
Lacordaire died while the struggle
was yet at its height; and Montalembert's
record is yet to be written. To the same band of enthusiasts, although he occupies a less exalted
place, belongs the present Archbishop of Paris, Monseigneur Darboy.
An ardent Liberal as well as
an ardent Catholic, Monseigneur Darboy has more than once been the object of Papal suspicion, and has
been forced to reaffirm his devotion to the Holy See. But his chief offense was the admission of Pere
Hyacinthe to the Cathedral of Notre Dame. To that historic church the intellect and the religious fervor of Paris flocked when attracted by such
eloquence as that of the barefooted
Carmelite. And the eager crowd
was not disappointed. Lettered and
unlettered, academicians and epicures
felt the fascination of the brilliant
preacher. After the great church
had been filled in every part, a man
of short stature, and singularly bright,
prepossessing face, would ascend the
pulpit and address the expectant
multitude. His oratory was strikingly natural. It was very much like the best speaking of the forum
transferred into the sanctuary, and
made holy by the infusion of sacred
themes. It was the reverse of ecclesiastical. About the Church the Father did not say much; about
doctrines he said still less; and
about the clergy he said little that
was not a rebuke. On the other hand, he made the aisles of Notre Dame resound with the most uncon-
promising Liberalism. In words of burning eloquence he taught men
that they owed duties to each other
as citizens, and that as fathers of
families they were dowered with
rights which even the Church could
not take away. The claim of the clergy to "direct" the conscience
of the wife, and to set aside the authority of the husband, was a preten-
sion which Pere Hyacinthe denounced with that peculiarly cutting, because personal eloquence, which men
can wield when assailing the men of their own order. He asserted the right of the husband to be supreme
in his own household, and the duty

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, - - OCTOBER 21, 1869.
A. J. MOREY, Editor.

The Career of Father Hyacinthe.
How His Eloquence Captivated
the Citizens of Paris—The War Against Him.

[From the London Telegraph.]
Although still comparatively young,
Pere Hyacinthe stands among the
chief pulpit forces of the Romish
Church. Joining the order of bare-
footed Carmelites, he speedily won
distinction by his scholarship and
his culture, no less than by his extraordinary power of speech. At an early age he promised to add a
bright star to the galaxy of French
pulpit eloquence. But, from the
time of his first utterances, he was
regarded with suspicious glances by
leading dignitaries of Rome. He
was seen to be tainted with Liberalism. His words had not that tone of
absolute submission to the Holy See
which is now coveted by the most
powerful among the priests of France.
On France, almost as much as on Ireland, the Ultramontane party has
laid its grasp. Much of the power
which the Jesuits have more than
once lost in that country they have
won back. Such dioceses as that of Orleans are ruled with a rod of iron,
in accordance with the dictates of
the Ultramontane creed; and the
prelates who represent the old Liberalism of France inspire in men like
Bishop Dupanloup much the same
hostility with which the extreme
High Church dignitaries of England
regard their extreme Broad Church
rivals.

The Ultramontane party, however
have been forced to fight a hard
battle with their Liberal foes. They
have had to contend with a band of
men to whom nature had given extraordinary intellectual gifts, and
whose piety, it was impossible for
the jealousy of orthodox itself to
imagine. Such men as Lamennais,
Lacordaire, and Montalembert, fused
that they could bridge over the
chasm between the theological creed
of the fifteenth century and the political creed of the nineteenth. In
the encounter Lamennais was so utterly overthrown by the members of
his own church that he cut loose the
ties which bound him, not only to Rome, but to revealed religion itself.
Lacordaire died while the struggle
was yet at its height; and Montalembert's
record is yet to be written. To the
same band of enthusiasts, al-
though he occupies a less exalted
place, belongs the present Archbishop of Paris, Monseigneur Darboy.
An ardent Liberal as well as
an ardent Catholic, Monseigneur Darboy has more than once been the
object of Papal suspicion, and has
been forced to reaffirm his devotion
to the Holy See. But his chief offense was the admission of Pere
Hyacinthe to the Cathedral of Notre Dame. To that historic church the
intellect and the religious fervor of Paris flocked when attracted by such
eloquence as that of the barefooted
Carmelite. And the eager crowd
was not disappointed. Lettered and
unlettered, academicians and epicures
felt the fascination of the brilliant
preacher. After the great church
had been filled in every part, a man
of short stature, and singularly bright,
prepossessing face, would ascend the
pulpit and address the expectant
multitude. His oratory was strikingly natural. It was very much
like the best speaking of the forum
transferred into the sanctuary, and
made holy by the infusion of sacred
themes. It was the reverse of ecclesiastical. About the Church the Father did not say much; about
doctrines he said still less; and
about the clergy he said little that
was not a rebuke. On the other hand, he made the aisles of Notre Dame resound with the most uncon-
promising Liberalism. In words of
burning eloquence he taught men
that they owed duties to each other
as citizens, and that as fathers of
families they were dowered with
rights which even the Church could
not take away. The claim of the
clergy to "direct" the conscience
of the wife, and to set aside the authority of the husband, was a preten-
sion which Pere Hyacinthe denounc-
ed with that peculiarly cutting, be-
cause personal eloquence, which men
can wield when assailing the men of
their own order. He asserted the
right of the husband to be supreme
in his own household, and the duty

of the citizen to obey the laws of his own country. Unmoved by the threats of Rome he raised up that old banner of French Liberalism, on which was inscribed devotion to the family and to the nation. Without directly assailing the priestly pretensions of the Ultramontane party,
he set forth doctrines which made these pretensions null and void.
Hence the men of France listened to the French preacher with undiguised rapture. A religious creed which did not compel them to break off all visible connection with Rome, and yet left them masters in their own households and citizens of their own country, was the very thing to which they pined. On the other hand, the Ultramontane party of Paris were furious against the discusses of the Carmelite. At his eloquence denunciations of the vices which are preying on the life of France were powerless to still the fierce cry of heresy. The preacher was assailed with that cry; and at last, even the courageous Archbishop of Paris so far bent before the storm that he put an end to the series of Carmelite discourses, and invited the chief rival of Pere Hyacinthe to fill the pulpit of Notre Dame. The new preacher, Pere Felix, strove hard to undo the mischief wrought by his gifted predecessor. A Jesuit, and dowered with the graces of his own most accomplished order, he lent all the riches of his rhetoric to vilify Protestantism, and to preach the duty of uncompromising submission to Holy Church. But the effort was in vain. The echoes of Hyacinthe's eloquence still lingered on men's ears. At last, however, the words of calumny won over to the side of his foes the chief dignitary of his order,
who had before encouraged the great preacher with loving words. In a letter to Hyacinthe the Father General of the barefooted Carmelites blamed him for doing the very things which he had previously encouraged him to perform, and commanded him to use a language, or to preserve a silence, which would not be the loyal expression of conscience.

How THE WOMEN WORSHIPED A BISHOP.
—S. Baring Gould, in his Curiosities of Olden Times, gives the following account of an altercation between Bishop Salazar, of Chiapa, and the women of his congregation:—
"The women of Chiapa were so addicted to the use of chocolate that they would neither hear low mass,
much less high mass, or a sermon,
without drinking cups of steaming
chocolate, and eating preserves,
brought on in trays by servants,
during the performance of Divine service, so that the voice of the preacher or the chant of the priest
were drowned in the continual clatter of cups and clinks of spoons; beside,
the floor, after service, was strewn with bon ton papers, and stained with splashes of the spilt beverage.
The Bishop preached hastily against the practice, but the women looked up at the pulpit with impassioned eyes, then wiped their lips, and put out their hands for some comfits.
The Bishop's voice thrilled shriller
and louder—he looked like an apostle
in his godly indignation. Crash!—
down went a tray at the Cathedral door, and every one looked round to see whose cups were broken. 'What was the subject of the sermon?'
asked masters of their apprentices
every Sunday for the next month,
and the ready answer came: 'Oh,
chocolate again!' The good prelate was at last compelled to excommunicate the offenders; but more chocolate was drunk in the Cathedral of Chiapa than ever. Some of the canons and priests were then stationed at the Cathedral doors to stop the ingress of the servants with cups and chocolate-pots. They had received injunctions to remove the drinking and eating vessels, and suffer the servants to come empty-handed to church. A violent struggle ensued in the porch and all the women within rushed in a body to the doors, to assist the domestics. The poor clerks were utterly routed and thrown in confusion down the steps, while, with that odious, well known clink, clink,
the trays came in as before. Soldiers were employed, but all to no purpose.
Finally, some of the women put an end to the controversy by poisoning
the Bishop, and chocolate was copiously drunk at his funeral."

SECRETARY OF WAR.—Wm. W.
Belknap, of Iowa, has received the appointment of Secretary of War in place of Rawlins, dec'd. He entered the army as an officer in the 15th
Iowa volunteers, and during the war became commander of a division.
Afterward he became Adjutant-General on Sherman's staff, and was mustered out at the expiration of his term of service. He is a lawyer by profession, and is at present Collector of Internal Revenue for the Keokuk district.

Last Friday, was the anniversary of the battle of Perryville, fought on the 8th day of October, 1862.

CINCINNATI SOUTHERN R. R.

Progress of the Survey from Covington to Lexington.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, held on Saturday morning, Wm.
A. Gunn, Esq., Engineer in charge of surveys, submitted the following preliminary report:

"Miles Greenwood, Esq., President of Board Trustees C. S. Railway."

"DEAR SIR—I have the honor to report that the two corps of Engineers, in charge of the preliminary surveys of the line of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, from Covington to Lexington, by way of Williamstown and Georgetown, met on the 30th ultimo, having run between Walton and Lexington, 62.32 miles.
The distance from Covington to Walton is 18.16 miles, making the distance from Covington to Lexington 80.48 miles. This will be reduced by corrections, in a few places, to eighty miles, or a fraction less. The maximum grade required is 52.8 feet per mile, and this is absolutely necessary
at but one place only, viz: Eagle Creek, and for a distance of two and a half miles, though its use in a few places, for small distances, will save expense in grading. A large part of the line will have level or very light grades. No sharp curvature is required, and I think none of less than one thousand four hundred and thirty three feet radius is necessary. There will be required two tunnels of three hundred feet each, and three bridges
over small creeks, and one trestle
over a valley near Eagle Creek.
There are several deep ravines which could be crossed more cheaply by trestles, but in my opinion, they may all be filled at reasonable cost. About one-third of the line has been graded of a pretty heavy character,
and the rest will be only moderately expensive.

"This, of course, applies to the line
from Walton to Lexington.
Respectfully submitted,
W. A. GUNN,
Chief Engineer C. S. R. R."

The Trustees directed the two corps to separate. One party, in charge of Capt. W. C. Crozer, will survey the route from Paris, via Winchester, Richmond, &c. The other, in charge of Maj. F. S. Wallace, will commence at Georgetown, thence to Versailles, Harrodsburg, and southwardly to intersect the various routes
that have already been surveyed from Danville to Knoxville, Chat-anooga and Nashville. This party will be aided by Col. Patterson, of Scott county, Ky., former Engineer of the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad.

Statutory Liens in Deeds—Recital
of Price Unpaid.
Kell's administrator et al. vs. Wolf et al.
From Keokuk, reversed Oct. 1, 1869.
Robertson, Judge.

In 1852 the Western Baptist Institute sold lots in Covington to the Covington and Lexington Railroad Company for $5,000 in stock in the road, and $2,500 in the bonds of the company. This suit was brought by the holders of the bonds, asserting a statutory lien as resulting from the recital in the deed, showing, as they claim, that a certain portion of the consideration was unpaid. The recital in the deed is as follows: "for,
and in consideration of, $5,000 in the stock of said company, and the further sum of $2,500 in the bonds of the said company, by the party of the first part, in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged."

The court below adjudged that a lien was reserved by the recital in the deed.

HEAD.—The recital in the deed does not show that any portion of the consideration, nor, if any, precisely how much, was unpaid. The stock being an investment, and a vendible commodity, was indisputably a payment of $5,000. Then, why should not the company's printed bonds,
payable in ten years, with interest
coupons attached, be equally considered an investment and a vendible commodity? Why are they not as much so as the five-twenty bonds of the United States? The only difference between them is, that one is issued by a political, and the other by a civil corporation, and all used for the same current purposes.—
Surely the recital as to these company bonds could not give certain notice that they had not been, like the stock, accepted as payment; on the contrary, both their character and the letter of the recital import payment. And, if needful, this construction is fortified by the intrinsic incredibility that the company, in such a contract, would guarantee its bonds by an extraordinary encumbrance which might embarrass its road and disturb public convenience.

Judge J. H. Holaday having resigned the position, Capt. Thos. F.
Hargis has been elected Judge of Nicholas county. Capt. Hargis was lately the editor of the Carlisle Mercury. He made a good editor, and will doubtless make a good Judge.

A gasolene lamp in the Singer Sewing Machine office, in Lexington, exploded on the 24th ult., but did no harm, save the burning of a ladies hands while trying to smother the flames.

The right to run a ferry from Ludlow to Cincinnati has been granted to Mrs. Helen Ludlow. The application for this privilege was sharply resisted by the city of Covington, and after the decision of the County Court in favor of Mrs. Ludlow the contestants made a motion for an appeal, which was granted.

An Awful Lie.

The Chicago Tribune has a correspondent traveling in Europe, who is unquestionably the biggest liar on the face of the earth. In a letter from Prague he says, speaking of a bath he had taken at the Rhine Falls:

"After I had come out, dressed myself, and was walking leisurely toward the Schloss Laufen, I noticed two young women in a single garment on the eve of a plunge. One of them went quietly into the water,
but the other, more from mischief
than modesty, looked archly over her naked shoulder as if to attract my attention. Then she ran behind a tree not half so broad as herself, and peered round its trunk in a way that might have been inviting to men less severely moulded. The exercise
she took picturesquely disarranged
her very scanty wardrobe, and her roguish eyes twinkled at what she conceived to be fine sport. She was quite pretty; the day was charming,
and I had nothing in the world to do.
If I had been Rubens I should have sketched the nymph. Her hair was daxen and her eyes were blue, like the mistress he is always putting in his pictures, though I am glad to say she was not half so flashy. But I did not give way to my artistic feelings on the occasion. I merely walked on to admire once more the beautiful falls. I heard the girls laughing and splashing in the water.
I did not look back. I remembered what happened to Lot's wife and to Orpheus."

He did not look back? If he didn't it was because the parent of the girls was there with a double-barreled shot gun, threatening to shoot him on the spot if he did!

Abandoning the Party.
Hon. O. B. Browning, Secretary of the Interior under Lincoln, has accepted the Democratic nomination for delegate to the Illinois Constitutional Convention. He has come out in full sympathy with the Democracy, and is satisfied that the true interests of the country demand the defeat of the Jacobins. In this opinion he will find thousands of his late Republican friends coinciding;
and their number is daily increasing.
He says: "I am opposed—decidedly, heartily, and definitely opposed—to striking the word 'white' out of the constitution" of Illinois, and does not hesitate to say that the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, if ratified, will be inconsistent with the other provisions, and with nearly all of them, to which it is an amendment, and necessarily, therefore, void—as much so as it were a proposition to set aside and abolish the Constitution of the United States. When such men as Judge Browning find it necessary to abandon the Abolitionists and destructives; it is evident there is nothing in that party which honest and patriotic citizens can consensu-ously support.—Ohio Crisis.

A. J. MOREY, Editor.

The Son of Crecow.

The telegraph has already despatched, says the Frankfort Commonwealth, to the four quarters of the globe the startling intelligence that a nun was imprisoned at Crecow, Poland, for twenty-one years, close shut up in a cell in a convent under the charge of one of the Father Confessors of the Catholic Church. The universal outburst of indignation that followed this announcement is fully justified by the particulars, as related by the Vienna (Austria) Presse. It seems an anonymous notice had reached the criminal Court at Crecow, to the effect that in a Carmelite Convent, near the city, one of the nuns, named Barbara Ubyrk, had been forcibly kept in close confinement in a dark cell for the period of twenty-one years. Investigations were at once ordered, and the convent being entered by the magistrates with proper witnesses, they proceeded under information to the upper corridor, and in a cell between two pantries, with a walled-up window and a double wooden door, in which was a wooden grating, they found the object of their search, a wretched, half-crazed woman, entirely naked, filthy in person, with hollow cheeks, and maciated limbs. The cell was seven paces long and six wide, and adjoined a sewer. In this horrible place, lined with dirt and filth, shut out from all contact with the outer world, from the pure air and the bright sunlight, from knowledge of the morning and the evening, for twenty-one long years, the poor creature had endured a living death. Without stove, or table, or chair, fed with half-decomposed food, she had dragged out wearily the wretched hours from day to day, from month to month, and from year to year since 1848. Her offense was that she had violated the law of her separation as a nun from the world by carnal indulgence, and for this her judges, no better than herself but her worse, had sentenced her to the fearful punishment she was undergoing.

The annals of modern times afford few instances of inquisitorial torture so execrable as this. We find a parallel only in the subterranean orgies that made infamous the history of the Inquisition. The lesson it teaches is ferid with application to the aggressive movement that threaten the expulsion of the Bible from the founts of knowledge to the masses. Let infidels, or religious fanatics, once thrust the Bible from the hands of school children and substitute their ritualistic doctrines, and the path is being paved that leads to enormities parallel with those inflicted on Barbara Ubyrk. A religious system capable of such fearful abuses, if its defenders claim a higher theater for it, does not deserve the encouragement of good men, haters of evil. Let the people be warned in time, before the insidious enemy plants itself in the citadel of religious liberty and free government.

The news from Europe is startling. Private letters by the steamer that reached New York last Monday, as well as dispatches to bankers, agree in stating that the situation in Western Europe is really alarming. It is apprehended that a red republican conspiracy exists, which has its ramifications in France, Spain, Italy, Germany, and even in Russia. It will be remembered that last year Garibaldi left the Peace Congress at Geneva to conquer Rome from the Pope. Had he succeeded the revolt of the reds would have broken out then, but he failed at Mentana, and now, following the Peace Congress at Lusanna, comes news by cable of a republican uprising in Spain, and riots in the around Paris. The most ominous sign in the last case is the refusal of the military to use the Chassepot upon the people. There are rumors of troubles in Italy, and fear of a labor revolt in Germany, and the Government's refusal to permit the formation of trade unions.

The Election.

Last week we raised our chicken to the head of a column, and gave one shout. This week, we take him down—the news from Ohio and Pennsylvania and elsewhere being of an unfavorable character. Mr. Pendleton has been defeated by 7,000 majority against him—and Lackner, in Pennsylvania by a still greater majority. There is only one fact that we are satisfied with, and that is that Harrison county is democratic.

(For the Cynthiana News.)

Licking River Obstructions.

MR. EDITOR:—I see in the last issue of your paper, an article, part of which is as follows: "The Commissioners appointed by the last Legislature to clear Main Licking River of all its obstructions, have given the Worlds family six thousand dollars for the privilege of taking an old dam out of Licking River, and three hundred dollars for taking the dam away." You then say, "how is this gentlemanly it is right?" I will simply state the facts in the case and leave you to answer the question of "is it right?"

The Commissioners have given the Messrs. Worlds six thousand dollars as damages to them for their franchise of water power, their mill dam, and damages to their other property; not as you say, "for the privilege of taking an old dam out of Licking River" only. They have agreed with a third party for the removal of the dam. They have not paid the Worlds family anything for the removal of the dam. Your information is wrong as to what was the consideration of the Worlds family for the six thousand dollars and as to paying them for removing the dam.

You will recollect that the Legislature at the session of 1867-8, passed an act appointing Commissioners to inspect Licking River, and report to them at its next session, the cost of removing the obstructions to navigation out of the River. In performing that duty the Commissioners personally inspected every mill and dam on the river, from Salyersville in Magoffin county, to its mouth, and from their own observation and from information derived from the neighbors to each owner of mills, fixed an estimate upon each mill, not the damages to the owner for the loss of their dam, but the actual value of the mill property and what they would bring if in the market for sale.

At its next session, which was last winter, the Legislature appropriated $75,000 to remove the obstructions to navigation, that were found to be in it by the Commissioners of Inspection, and appointed other Commissioners, (some of whom were the same men,) to remove the obstructions out of the river. With discretionary power as to making private contracts with mill owners, as to their damages, or have jury's summoned and their property condemned, in the same manner and under the same law that lands are now condemned for Turnpike purposes.

And in obedience with this act, the Commissioners have gone on and contracted with some of the mill owners as to their damages, and with others have had their property condemned in conformity to law. There were seventeen mill dams to be removed. In eleven cases where they made private contracts, only in one instance have they paid more as damages to the mill owners than the estimate of the value by the former Commissioners. Whilst in the six remaining cases, when they have had the property condemned by juries, they have been compelled, in every instance to pay more as damages than the value fixed by the first Commissioners, and sometimes nearly double the estimated value.

One of the first to make a contract with the owner of mill property, was in Morgan county, with Joseph Gudge. The Commissioners of Inspection valued his mill property to be worth $900. Mr. Gudge asked us as damages to his property $12,000. A jury was summoned and they gave him $3,750 as damages. The Commissioners appealed from this judgement and got it reduced to $3,500. Five hundred dollars more than the former Commissioners fixed as the value of his property. I will say here that the two sets of Commissioners agreed generally as to the value of the different mills upon the river.

Their second suit was with Mrs. Margaret E. Rice, the Commissioners believed her property to be worth $2,000. She would not set a price as to her damages. A jury was summoned and tried the case. They gave her $3,150 as damages. One thousand one hundred and fifty dollars as damages, more than they believed her property to be worth. Mrs. Rice's property is in Bath county. The jury was said to be composed of as good men as was to be found in Bath county, and I think in all of the suits the Commissioners had, the juries were composed of good men so far as I was capable of judging.

The next was with Barber, of Fleming county, at the mouth of the State, at a little town called Wyoming; here there are two mills to one dam, one each side of the river. The Commissioners valued the two to be worth $3,000, about half to each. They paid by private contract to the owner of one of the mills $1,750 as their damages, and had a jury to assess damages to the other (Barbers). They gave Barber $3,000, double what the Commissioners thought his property to be worth.

The next was with Judge Day, of Fleming county. The Commissioners valued his property at $4,000. A jury was summoned who gave him $7,500 damages. From which decision the Commissioners appealed. When the judgement was increased to $7,750, nearly double what they (the Commissioners) thought his property to be worth.

The next suit was with John D. Baglar. The Commissioners valued his property at $3,000, the jury gave him $4,750 damages. They also had a suit with Hazlerig & Barlow, of Morgan county. They valued their property at $2,000. A jury gave them $4,750 as damages.

In all of their suits the Commissioners on the part of the State, had good and able lawyers to conduct their suits.

I think, Mr. Editor, with this experience, the Commissioners did better to give Messrs. Worlds $6,000, than to have had the damages assessed by a jury. In no single case stated above, were the mill owners more popular men than the Messrs. Worlds. Nor had their mills a better reputation than had the Worlds mills to do good work. Besides the Worlds neighborhood is the only section on the river from Salyersville to its mouth, where the people are opposed to the removal of the mill dams, where they think more of the mill than they do of the navigation of the river.

The Worlds mill was estimated to be worth $6,000 by the Commissioners. I have found several respectable men who say, that they estimate the Worlds mills to be worth from $8,000 to $12,000, and would so testify in Court. I have no doubt but what a jury would have given them more money than the Commissioners did. Very few of the mills with all of their machinery are worth $600 since the dams have been removed.

As to paying $300 for taking the dam out of the river. The case is just this: I advertised that I would on a certain day, let out to the lowest bidder the removal of the dam. On the day indicated in the notice, there was a large crowd of persons in attendance, when I put up the job to the lowest bidder with the understanding, that if I did not think the price bid a reasonable one, I would reject it. The lowest bid was $800, which I refused. I then hired hands and put them in the river to work by the day; but a party agreed to take it out for $300, and I let him have the job at that price.

Mr. Editor, please insert this in your next issue in justice to the Commissioners.

Respectfully, M. D. MARTIN.
Rathens Station, Ky.,
Oct. 16, 1869.

BERKSHIRE PIGS SOLD.—S. M. Pryor, of Bourbon, has sold recently one pair of Berkshire pigs, to J. C. Ramsey, of Madison county, for $100; one pair young sow pigs to Gordon & Daniel, Winchester, for $75 each, one sow pig, two months old for $6; 3 pigs to J. H. Hockaday, of Madison, for $115, and one gilt to Mr. Bergen, also of Madison, for $75. The prices paid for these pigs may be regarded as good evidence that they are superior animals.

M. A. Kenny, of Bourbon, sold to Peter Stone, of Mount Sterling, one pig under 6 months old for $125, and also one aged sow to Col. Stoner for $125.—Farmers Home Journal.

LARGE LAND SALE.—The farm of Mr. Geo. W. Stoner, which has been advertised in this paper for several weeks, lying on the line between Montgomery and Bath was sold on Friday last to George and J. C. Hamilton, at $129.60 per acre. The tract contained 475 acres, and brought the nice sum of $60,564.60. This is said to be the highest price ever paid for land in Eastern Kentucky.—Mount Sterling Sentinel.

(For the Cynthiana News.)
"Dogs"—The city Father of Cynthiana, &c.

MR. EDITOR:—We hope that a short space will be given to a few remarks suggested by the above caption, and to attract public attention to the fact, that Cynthiana has more dogs than even a well regulated Esquimaux village was ever known to possess.

In conversation on the above subject we have heard that, once upon a time, our council did pass an ordinance restricting the owners of dogs to certain wholesome regulations, as a condition of ownership and protection—to their valuable canines, but a howl of indignation was raised, chiefly by the owners of worthless curs—that completely overwhelmed their sense of right, and either in view of the "honorable succession," or some other motive, this ordinance was repealed. Now we desire to ask, what value can any one attach to a piece of property of so sacred a character that it can not be taxed? If dogs are so essential to the welfare, and protection of man and his property, if they contribute to his pleasure, by constant manifestations of that rarest of traits—"Disinterested friendship," and thereby inspire his gratitude or affection—should he not in all reason be glad to pay for those inestimable blessings, and should not the city council in a spirit of fairness toward those who are not able to enjoy these luxuries, but must from necessity confine themselves to the more material usefulness of a pig—tax dogs as well as pigs, or cows, or other useful animals?

It is placing animals of prime necessity to every household, at a disadvantage, compared with those of limited usefulness, and our council should have the courage to mend the wrong.

We venture the assertion, that not a shillens negro loafer about the most abject hut in the city, but owns one or more mongrels, and rejoices in its devotion, as well as its ability to sustain life by forays upon the sheepfolds in the vicinity of the city—and further, that three fourths of the dogs in Cynthiana, are found among the negroes who are not able to provide for their own children.

If the startling fact, that not a farmer, with one single exception, within a radius of three miles from the city, on the East side of Licking, dares to own a flock of sheep, were forced upon their notice, we wonder if it would move them to devise some protection, and have about five hundred town dogs killed. Not a foray has happened lately but the authors could be traced to town, where for their search is useless. The farmers have been forced to discontinue sheep breeding, and one of the most lucrative branches of his legitimate business, must yield to the taste of loafers for the companionship of dogs. Talk about a dog tax, and you raise the furries in these personages instantly, and from the vehemence of their denunciation of such a measure—one would suppose it a personal affair, and they were some dog themselves. Nothing wrong in fostering a common nuisance to the neighboring farmers—but let the farmers hogs casually wander into your city, and the whole might of municipal authority is instantly invoked to protect from the invasion, and the hogs on a moments warning find themselves sold among strangers.

It looks as if our ordinances were inspired with Jewish hostility to swine, and if they can't be amended to embrace the dogs in the same proscriptive ban—we propose to advocate Chinese emigration to this place and have them eat up by the celestial. We can point to one individual living three miles East of Cynthiana, who in the past twelve months has lost seven hundred dollars worth of sheep, and as he is the only one left in the neighborhood of town engaged in the business, will be compelled to sell out his flock or have them all killed. There is no means of rebuking the want of consideration evinced by the city fathers in thus suffering themselves indirectly to invade the surrounding country with these courageous—sheep-killing dogs—or some of the farmers would take pleasure in embracing them, but let us trust that this simple reminder will be sufficient to elicit prompt and thorough reform in this matter.

The indictment against the city of Hickman for not keeping the streets in proper condition, preferred at the last court, has been dismissed by the circuit court for want of jurisdiction.

(For the Cynthiana News.)
Fall and Winter Fashions.

MRS. M. A. BINDER has just arrived from Paris and London with the latest designs, personally selected from the greatest novelties; also, the most elegant Trimmings to be secured in Paris.

Laces, Ribbons, Velvets, Bridal Veils, Flowers, Fine Jewelry, and Trimmings for Patterns, Dress and Cloak making.

Exclusive agent for Mrs. M. W. R. K's celebrated system for cutting ladies' dresses, saques, basques, &c.

TO EXAMINE.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c.

The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON,
Williamsburg, King Co., New York.
June 10, 1869—1y.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.

A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Prostration, Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence,

JOHN B. OGDEN,
No. 42 Cedar St., New York.
June 10, 1869—1y.

A Card.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Venereal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge.

Address,
JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House,
New York City.

T. W. EVELETH'S
GROCERY.

We have just received a large and complete stock of Groceries,

HARDWARE, WOODENWARE
etc., etc., etc.

Which we are determined to sell very low, for the cash. Give us a call, and you will be certain to buy

Sugars,

Granulated, Crushed, Demara, Powdered and Cuba.

Syrups,

Our Choice, Mountain Dew, Gold Drop, and New Orleans.

Soap,

Candles, and Starch.

Shot,

Powder, Lead, and Caps.

Build's Hardware

Nails by the keg, Locks, Hinges, Screws, and Bolts.

Paints,

Linseed Oil, Coal Oil, Lard Oil, and Fish Oil.

Woodenware,

Water buckets, Butter buckets, Well buckets, Tubs, Reelers, and Baskets.

For sale by
May 27—1y. T. W. EVELETH.

NEW GROCERY HOUSE

—AND—
A NEW FIRM.

PAUL KING, JR. F. G. ASHBROOK.
King & Ashbrook,
Wholesale and Retail GROCERY STORE,
At the old stand.

1869. 1869.

NEW GOODS.

D. A. GIVENS,

No. 26 Main St.,

Dealer in FOREIGN

—AND—

DOMESTIC

Merchandise,

SHOP MADE

Shoes and Boots,

HATS CAPS.

Cassimeres,

Furnishing Goods, &c.

D. A. GIVENS.

October 13, 1869—1y.

Horses handled

AND

Trained.

HAVING planted my Corn, I am now prepared to handle a few horses and mares, and break to the saddle or harness.

I am situated three miles west of Cynthiana, on the Raven Creek Turnpike road, on the place recently occupied by Samuel Ashbrook, where I have excellent grass and plenty of corn. My Post-office is Cynthiana.

J. T. NICHOLS.

May 20—1y.

ALL AROUND

THE FIRST PREMIUM
OF A SILVER MEDAL

BARRETT'S HAIR RESTORATIVE
By the Hon. H. H. Chase Agricultural Society, at the Fair, Boston, in March, 1869, No. 716.

BARRETT'S
Vegetable Hair Restorative
Restores Gray Hair to the natural color. Promotes the growth of the Hair. Changes the color of the scalp. Keeps the scalp cool. Prevents itching humors. Its Superior Preparation. It is the most perfect and reliable article for restoring the hair to its natural color and growth.

J. R. BARRETT & CO., Proprietors,
MANCHESTER, N. H.

LORD & SMITH,
CHICAGO.

General Agents for the Northwestern States
Sold by J. W. RENABLER, 1864-ly

DISSOLUTION.

THE Partnership heretofore existing between Mrs. Hubbard and Mr. O. Kennard, in the Millinery & Dress Making business, was dissolved July 1st, 1869.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the firm will please come forward and settle immediately, if they please.

M. E. HUFFMAN,
O. KENNARD.

Aug 19—3m.

THE MT. AUBURN
Young Ladies Institute

Has a beautiful and convenient location upon the influence from which it takes its name. Its history has been a record of uninterrupted prosperity.

Its course of instruction runs through three departments of four years each. Special or elective courses of study may be pursued as far as students may wish. The regular advantages are thus offered young ladies who have already taken the ordinary English studies. The best of instruction is given in music, drawing and painting, modern languages and other extras. None but the most competent teachers are employed.

Apparatus is furnished for every department. Libraries containing several thousand volumes of standard books are always accessible. Physical culture is carefully attended to.

For catalogues or further information address,
Rev. A. J. ROWLAND, Pres.
or J. H. WILSON, Treasurer.

No. 113 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Aug. 12—1m.

H. KASSAUER,

Manufacturer and Dealer in all kinds of andies, Wholesale and Retail,

Scott St., bet. Third & Fourth,
COVINGTON, KY.

(All orders promptly attended to.)
June 21—3m.

FOR SALE!

A HARRISON FARM,

A S I design to go west. I will sell the farm on which I now reside, situated 11-2 miles East of Cynthiana, on the road leading to Buena Vista, containing 31-2 acres, 20 acres of which is now in Corn, the balance in grass. On the place is a good dwelling, containing five rooms and kitchen, a good barn and all necessary out buildings, also a good young orchard, and all the smaller fruits. Also, 40 acres on the same road adjoining the farms of Joseph Shaw and S. G. Strimman, all in a high state of cultivation. Plenty of good water for all purposes. Will be sold low. Terms easy. Enquire of SAM'L T. HOWARD, on the premises.

NOTICE.

THIS is to inform all persons. White or Black, from hunting or killing through our farms, as we are determined to enforce the Law against all trespassers.

JOSEPH SHAWMAN,
H. E. SHAWMAN.

October 7—3m.

A Nice Fit.

GENTLEMEN and Boys, who wish to have nice fitting garments cut, should go to Brewington's. A nice fit guaranteed. Charges moderate. Shop in the same building where Dr. Baitzelle has his office, on Main street.

FOR RENT
120 ACRES

—OF—
HARRISON LAND

I DESIRE to rent my farm, situated on the Leesburg and Carroll Gate Turnpike, near Lee's Lick, in this county, containing 120 acres, and a Splendid Frame House,

with six rooms and other out houses, all in good repair. I want to rent it until March 1871. There are 35 acres of Plowed land, the balance in blue grass and clover. Call at the premises or address at Leesburg, P. O.

J. A. THOMPSON.
Oct 14—69-3w

HELLO—LOOK HERE!

I will give $10 reward for a light bay horse, 15 hands high, with some white spots on his belly just behind the girth—he goes the old fashion pace and walks well—he is 3 years old last spring—he got loose at North Middletown, Ky.—was purchased from Ruben Gossett, Connorsville, Harrison county, Ky. in Paris, on the 1st Monday in October, 1869. I will give the above reward for any information so I can get the horse. Address
Oct. 14, 1869. Box 33, N. M. Town, Ky.

Dr. SAM. DOUGLAS,

Will be in Cynthiana every other County Court Day, to dispense of his Great Cures.

Dr. D's Medicines will be found for sale only, at the Drug Store of Dr. Ottwell.

October 14, 1869—3mo.

Now is the Time to Subscribe!

FOR THE FARMERS' HOME JOURNAL!
LEXINGTON, KY.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS!

Ten Columns to be added January 1st, 1870.

To those who subscribe now for 1870, the paper will be sent FREE from October 1st to January, 1870.

To clubs of Six or more the paper will be sent at $2.50 per annum.

There are many persons who desire to see and read a paper before subscribing for it, and for their benefit we propose to send the Farmers' Home Journal, from the 1st of October to the 1st of January, next for the small sum of FIFTY CENTS.

We will take it as a favor of those who read this will make known these inducements to their neighbors. Send for specimen copies.

October 14, 1869.

H. McDowell, M. D.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

OFFICE.—On Court Street in rear of the Court House

6630-641y

FOR SALE

BUILDING LOT

ONE of the most desirable lots in the city, situated on the corner of Main and Mill streets, in a good neighborhood, and where there are some fine residences. Will be sold low. Apply to

W. L. VANHOOK.

J. R. LAIR, J. R. MCGEE, C. L. LAIR.

LAIR, MCGEE & CO.

WHOLESALE

LIQUOR DEALERS,

AND GENERAL

Commission Merchants.

No. 521 Madison St.,
COVINGTON, KY.

Particular attention given to Distillers' orders.

Consignment of Wheat, Rye, Hemp, &c., to be sold on commission or stored, will receive our personal and prompt attention.

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, KY.
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1869

LOCAL MATTER.

"Barrett's" Hair Restorative.

Dr. Noah Moore, was in Cynthia last Tuesday.

This city needs a Work-house. Will the city council arrange one.

Further Hyacinthe, a Carmelite Priest, from Paris, France, arrived in New York last Monday.

W. P. Hedges of this county had his leg broken last Saturday by a kick from a mule.

A colored boy named West Ross, was out hunting last Monday with Dan Grinnan, who accidentally filled him with shot.

Johnson & Co., are at Berry's and have a splendid Flour Mill. They make splendid flour. If you don't believe it, ask the people.

Silas G. Stierman, left a fine specimen of the Peach Blow Potatoes at our office last week. They are said to be a splendid variety.

Andrew Garrett, Sr., has corn which has 963 kernels—and is 8 inches in circumference, 12 inches long. It is hard to beat.

Mr. C. H. Ashton this week assumes control of the Flemingsburg Democrat, Messrs. A. T. Cox, and M. M. Teager, retiring.

Dr. Mulholland, of Elizabethtown, has been appointed U. S. Assessor of the Lebanon District, in place of W. M. Spencer.

J. L. Entler, of Hickman, died on Thursday. He was a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, who turned out in large force at his funeral.

M. Jameson, grocer, on Main Street has just received a large and extensive stock of fresh groceries. He says he sells cheap for cash. Call and see him.

A new generation from "Barrett."

The old negro, "Jerry," who has been in jail for some months under a charge of burning J. C. S. Blackburn's barn, was last week tried in the circuit court of Woodford county, and was discharged.

Georgetown Court Day Sales as reported by A. W. Lydick, auctioneer, about 300 head of cattle on the market, mostly common stock, selling at fair prices. 2 year olds about 5 1/2 cts per lb. gross. Mules sold at good prices—plugs of horses in demand, and at fair prices. No sale for fine horses. Hogs sought for at good prices. Most sales made on time. Feeding good, with large crowd in town.

T. J. Campbell sold his house and lot, on Walnut street, last week, to Wm. Hampton, (colored,) for $2,000. And Dr. Baltzell, sold Mr. C., a lot 50 feet front and 170 feet deep for $200.

Mr. H. Clay Magee has laid on our table an ear of corn which contains 1,260 kernels. This is the largest corn we have seen this year.

On Tuesday evening last, a heavy snow fell in this region. Winter, cold and bleak, is upon us now. People who have plenty of wood, and blessed with every comfort, which makes life agreeable, should not forget the poor.

John Curry, the colored boy, who killed his father, Nick Broadwell, and for which he was sent to the Penitentiary, died there about two weeks ago of small pox. He should have died by the rope.

The revival at the Baptist Church at Frankfort still continues. On the 10th inst., there were thirty additions to the church, twenty-four of whom were baptized, and six joined by letter. The revival is still progressing and will probably continue throughout the present week.

A MAN KILLED.—On last Sunday, October 17th, Bob Shannon shot and killed James Wells. The ball passed through his body just below the left nipple. These men were at the residence Arch Bonds, about one mile south of Leesburg, in Harrison county. They quarrelled over a Watch. This is the second murder in this county within forty days. It is necessary that the officers of the law should be more vigilant or we fear the devil will get us.

"Barrett's" spreads its name.

"Wig-makers" don't like "Barrett."

The Henderson Reporter says: "So far as we have learned very little tobacco in this section has been materially injured by frost. We have seen cut stalks measuring to tip of leaves about six feet, some of the leaves being 22 inches in width. Cuba tobacco may be finer, but it wouldn't take many leaves of the Kentucky weed to cover the 'Gem of the Antilles'."

Mrs. Porter, of Covington, has been appointed Postmistress at Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Porter is the widow of Judge Bruce Porter, and daughter of the Hon. James T. Morehead, who served Kentucky as a Legislator, a Governor, and a Senator in the Congress of the United States. There were numerous applicants for the position; and through the influence of the father of the President, the office was given to Mrs. Porter. She is said to be a very handsome, intelligent widow. The disappointed aspirants ought to strike for clerkships—for it wouldn't go hard to "serve under such a chief."

For the Cynthia News. BAPTIST CHURCH CONSTITUTION.—A new Baptist interest has been recognized about three miles East of Berry's Station, of great promise. Saturday the 9th of October, a council composed of Elders J. R. Barbee, L. H. Denman and J. N. Barbee, licentiate, with a number of brethren from the nearest Baptist Church, met with about forty-five brethren and sisters of vicinity of Mt. Nebo, Harrison county, Ky., and after due deliberation proceeded to recognize them as a Church, adopting as their name the Providence Baptist Church, Harrison county, Ky.

Distiller's Convention. We learn from a circular letter now being passed among Distillers, that they will hold a Convention at Lexington very soon. We copy the following from the circular:

"It seems desirable that all the Distillers of Kentucky should convene and exchange social and friendly communication—to discuss the present condition, and deliberate upon the future prospects of the trade, and promote and further, by all honorable means, the interest of those engaged in the distillation of Bourbon Whisky. While the prospects of the business at this time are not as flattering as they should be, nevertheless, it is believed that a full attendance of all the Distillers in the State, accompanied with unity, enterprise, and co-operation,—the convention can be made to accomplish infinite results.

"In accordance with the request and authority, I have selected, the 'Phoenix Hotel,' Lexington, Ky., as the point, and Wednesday, November 3rd, 1869, as the day and date for such Convention.

Respectfully,
JOHN W. MEGIBBEN,
Acting Secretary,

CHURCH DISTURBERS AND ROWDIES. For some eighteen months passed, there has been an itching disposition on the part of a few white people and black ones too, fraught with whisky and malice, to disturb and annoy Divine Worship, in this city. It is a source of continual reference by our clergymen; and last Monday a number were brought before His Honor, the Mayor. This time it was black people disturbing the colored church and behaving badly generally. The Mayor has no power to impose a severe punishment upon the disturbers of the peace, but it is his duty to hold them by heavy bail or imprisonment until the sitting of the Criminal Court, when the facts and the prisoner should be sent to the Grand Jury. When once in the hands of the police jury of the county, there will hardly be any more Church disturbances in this city again soon.—They can impose a fine of $500 and imprison for 12 months. They should attend to their business. One example will be sufficient, at least for ten years, and the sooner the all powerful arm of the law is laid upon such offenders the better.

LAND SALES.—Mr. John M. Burgh has sold his farm of 260 acres, near Newtown, to Wm. W. Ferguson, of Bourbon county, for $100 per acre. Mrs. C. P. Talbot, of Bourbon, has purchased of Joseph Hawkins, the Dr. James Offutt farm, of 144 acres, in the same neighborhood for $105 per acre.

On Monday Mr. M. N. Peak sold his farm of 167 acres, on North Elk horn, to Dr. J. R. Adams, of this place, at $60 per acre.—Georgetown Times.

"Barrett" a public benefactor.

We clip the following items from the Warsaw News: The Gallatin Circuit Court adjourned on the 28th of September, after a tedious session of eight days. The case of the Commonwealth vs. Murphy, by change of venue from Carroll county, was continued for the defendant. The grand jury found twenty-six true bills, one of which was for hog stealing, and another for a crime committed by a negro, too vile to be written.

Madam Rumor has it, that "somebody," from Warsaw, is going down to Carroll county next week, to engage in a prize fight, or get married, we can't, for our lives, remember which.

MARRIED.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, by Elder D. W. Case, on Thursday, October 14th, 1869, Mr. Arthur Fennel, to Miss Mary F. Sims, daughter of James Sims, all of Harrison county.

At 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the Merchants Hotel, Cincinnati, was the scene of a gay and happy party. A wedding was united to Miss Maggie Redmon; J. H. Ewalt to Miss Anna Offutt, and J. W. Lair to Miss Lizzie Redmon. May Happiness attend them through life.

Near Georgetown, Ky., on Tuesday, Oct. 19, 1869, at the residence of Mr. John Hayden, uncle of the bride, Mr. S. A. White to Miss Annie P. Oldham, daughter of Mr. John Oldham, dec'd, of Jessamine county.

On the 12th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Graham, of Nicholas county, and Miss Mollie Regan, of Montgomery county.

On the 15th inst., at Mr. Stoves, in this county, by the Rev. Mr. Lancaster, Mr. Carr to Miss Maggie Carpenter.

DIED.

Died, at the residence of Jas. W. Nutter, of Fayette county, on the 14th inst., of Typhoid Pneumonia, Miss ELLA O. LYDICK, youngest daughter of A. W. Lydick.

Died, near Maysfield, Ky., October 21st, 1869, Mr. JOHN ADAMS, aged 40 years, after a long and protracted illness.

Died, at the residence of her husband, in Leesburg, Ky., on the 15th inst., Mrs. JANE HART, wife of Wm. Hart, aged 86 years.

Mrs. H. was a very estimable lady—an affectionate wife, fond mother, and an exemplary Christian. She leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was the daughter of Geo. Chowning, Esq., who emigrated from Virginia to this State when Mrs. H. was but 7 years old. She is the sister of John Chowning, Esq., of Pendleton county.

A WATCH pair of Blankets, Quilt or Shawl for One Dollar appears almost impossible, but such may be had and hundreds of other useful articles by patronizing PARKER & CO.'S, "ONE DOLLAR SALE."

Their system of doing business has been examined by authorities and a verdict rendered from the Internal Revenue department at Washington, Nov. 24, 1868, declaring their business perfectly fair and legitimate and entirely different from the numerous enterprises. Of course all do not get watches, blankets, &c., for One Dollar, but in every lot there is one of the articles are sold for One Dollar, as an inducement, and some member of the lot has the chance of obtaining it. A New feature introduced by the enterprising firm, is to pay their agents, in either cash or goods, and to pre-pay the express charges. No better opportunity can be offered to Ladies or Gentlemen, leaving leisure time, than to form a club for this firm. Read their advertisement in another column, and send for catalogue.

October 21, 1869—Imo.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.

Cynthia.—Christian Church.—Elder D. Case, services every Lord's day except the fifth.

Methodist.—Rev. J. W. Wightman, services every Sunday.

Presbyterian.—Rev. H. Glass, will preach in the Presbyterian Church in this city every 1st and 3rd Sabbath in each month.

Leesburg.—Christian Church.—Elder J. A. Gano—services every 3rd Lord's Day of each month.

Pleasant Presbyterian Church, at Broadwell. Preaching regularly on the 21st and 28th Sabbath in each month, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Trinity.—Episcopal Church.—Rev. W. Thomas, Rector, services every Sunday morning and evening.

Elder Baker, of the Baptist Church preaches in the Court House every third Saturday and Sunday following of each month.

LET US PROTECT OURSELVES.

The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them. To some extent, from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom; it is prudence; it is common sense to provide against such contingencies, by taking an ANTIMONY ADVANCE; in other words by fortifying the system with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the most complete protective against all the epidemic maladies that has ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth, where HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS can be procured, does so voluntarily; for, as surely as truth exists, this invaluable tonic and alterative will restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the nervous it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed constipation it also affords speedy and permanent relief.

In all cases of fever and ague the BITTERS is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the more dangerous cases of malarial fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the HOSTETTER BITTERS professes to subdue. To those who have witnessed the experiment, we cordially recommend an early application to the BITTERS whenever they are stricken by disease of the digestive organs.

October 21, 1869—Imo.

BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of Joshua Woodhead. Petition for final discharge filed on the 17 day of August, 1869. By order of the Court the Creditors of Joshua Woodhead, Bankrupt, are hereby notified to appear before me at my office, No. 323 Scott Street, Covington, Ky., on the 14th day of October, 1869, at 10 o'clock, a. m., to show cause, if any they have, why the bankrupt aforesaid should not be discharged from his debts.

JOHN W. FINNELL, Register.
JOHN T. LEVINS Assignee.

To-Day's Advertisements.

COTSWOLD SHEEP FOR SALE. I WANT to sell my entire flock of sheep. Those desiring pure Cotswold will find it to their advantage to examine my flock, as I can supply them with thoroughbred at reasonable rates. JOHN H. DILLS, October 21, 1869—3w.

Grates! Grates! Grates!

W. A. PARISH, Cynthia, Ky. I am prepared to furnish Grates of all descriptions on the shortest notice. He repairs Grates, and all of his work shall be done in a workmanlike manner—and warrant to give general satisfaction.

October 21, 1869—Imo.

1869. 1869.

Fall & Winter

GOODS.

Stone Front!

T. J. Megibben, and

J. Mac. Kimbrough

We are now receiving our Stock of Fall and Winter Goods direct from New York, comprised in part of the following:

Dress Goods; Silks, black and in colors; Diagonal Poplins; Plain Poplins; French Merinos, in colors; Bombazines; Alpaca, all grades; Pressed, Plain and Plain Flannel; A large lot of Shawls of all kinds. Delaines; Prints and Notions; Domestic, brown and bleached; Canton Flannels, brown and bleached; a large stock of Cloths and Cassimeres, black and fancy.

A full line of Overcoating, French Beaver, Chinchillas, and Janes, coarse and fine.

Plain Linsey, Hosiery, Gent's and Ladies riding gloves. Kid riding gloves.

A large stock of Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps.

Mr. M. SHOUNESKY, is prepared to execute all orders in his line, in the latest style, and upon the shortest notice and at reasonable prices. Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases. Special inducements to cash buyers.

MEGIBBEN & KIMBROUGH.
October 21, 1869.

MALT!

I HAVE a supply of SPRING AND

BARLEY MALT,

For sale, which I will sell as low house in the West.

B. GILLESPIE,

Cheapside, Lexington.

Cynthia News copy one month and send bill to Lexington Gazette.

October 21, 1869—Imo.

NOTICE.

To the stockholders of the Cynthia, Commercial and Scott County Turnpike Company, that a call of ten per cent, is required to be paid to Dr. A. Comer, Treasurer, or deposited in the Cynthia Bank, to its credit on or before Saturday, the 30th day of this month.

E. KIRTLY,
President.

October 21, 1869—2w.

The only Reliable Cure for Dyspepsia in the known World.

DR. WISHART'S GREAT AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA PILLS and PINK TREE CORRIAL are a positive and reliable cure for dyspepsia in its most aggravated form, and no matter of how long standing.

They penetrate the secret abode of this terrible disease, and exterminate its root and branch, forever.

They relieve the more agony and silent suffering from indigestion can fall.

They are potent for curing the most desperate and hopeless cases, when every known means fail to afford relief.

No form of dyspepsia can resist their penetrating power.

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORRIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar by which its highest medicinal properties are retained. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and excels in the treatment of the system which it scrofula broods on the lungs. It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to cure diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases: If the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure—

Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, &c.

A medical expert, holding honorable college diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examination of patients at the office and at their homes. Associated with him are the consulting physicians of acknowledged eminence, whose services are given to the public FREE OF CHARGE.

This opportunity is offered by no other institution in the country.

Letters from any part of the country, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to. No more convenient remittance should take the shape of DRAFTS OR POST-OFFICE ORDERS.

Price of Wishart's American Dyspepsia Pills, $1 a box. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Price of Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Corriol, $1 a bottle. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Letters from any part of the country, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to. No more convenient remittance should take the shape of DRAFTS OR POST-OFFICE ORDERS.

Price of Wishart's American Dyspepsia Pills, $1 a box. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Price of Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Corriol, $1 a bottle. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Letters from any part of the country, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to. No more convenient remittance should take the shape of DRAFTS OR POST-OFFICE ORDERS.

Price of Wishart's American Dyspepsia Pills, $1 a box. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Public Sale OF HARRISON LAND.

On Monday, November 1st, 1869, we will sell to the highest bidder, at the Court-House door in Cynthia, without reserve, a tract of land situated on North Licking River, about seven miles north of Cynthia, on the Kentucky Cent. & Ohio R.R., and 2 1/2 miles from Robinson Station, containing 130 acres with about thirty acres of timber, the balance in grass. The improvements are good. Water in plenty. Terms of sale made known on day of sale.

FRANCIS GREGG, SUSAN ROGERS, A. W. LYDICK, Auctioneer.

October 21, 1869—1t.

$15 GOOD AS GOLD. $20 BUY THE ONLY GENUINE IMPROVED OROIDE GOLD WATCHES.

MANUFACTURED BY The Oroide Watch Co.

They are the best made. Hunting Cases, finely chased; look and wear like fine gold; and are equal in appearance to the best gold watches usually costing $150. Full jeweled Solid, Gent's and Ladies' sizes, at $15 each. OUR DOUBLE EXTRA REFINED, Oroide Gold Hunting Cases, Full Jeweled Levers, are equal to $200 Gold Watches; Regulated with Extra fine Cases, at $20 each.

No money is required in advance. We send by Express anywhere within the United States; payable to agents on delivery, with the privilege to open and examine before paid for, and if not satisfactory returned, by paying the Express charges. Goods will be sent by mail as Registered Packages, prepaid, by sending cash in advance.

An Agent sending for 5 Watches gets an extra Watch free, making seven $15 Watches for $90, or seven $20 Watches for $120.

Also elegant Oroide Chains, of latest and most costly styles, for Ladies and Gentlemen, from 10 to 40 inches long, at $2, $4, $6 and $8 each, sent with watches at lowest wholesale prices. State kind and size of watch required, and to avoid bogus orders order only from

THE OROIDE WATCH CO., 145 Fulton Street, New York.

October 21, 1869—3mos.

J. H. Lutz, J. M. Lutz & Co., Distillers.

STRAIGHT-COPPER WHISKY.

6th District, Lutz, Ky.

The Readers of the

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

Will please note that

T. W. SPRAGUE & CO.

S. E. Corner 4th and Vine Street,

CINCINNATI, O.,

Are now ready with a new and

desirable Stock of Men's, Youth's and Children's ware—at the lowest possible price for CASH.

Oct. 7, 1869—Imo.—$10.

TROTTER FAIR!

under the auspices and control of the

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION,

—AT—

LEXINGTON, KY.,

Commencing on Wednesday, October 20th, 1869.

—AND—

Continuing Four Days.

PREMIUMS:

FIRST DAY.

1st RACE.—A premium of $50 for horses that have never trotted better in public than three minutes, mile heats, three in five.

2d RACE.—Match Stake $25 premium closed with three entries, mile heats, three in five.

SECOND DAY.

1st RACE.—A premium of $50 for horses that have never trotted better than 2:30 in public, mile heats, three in five.

2d RACE.—A premium of $50 for horses that have never trotted better than 2:40 in public, mile heats, three in five.

THIRD DAY.

1st RACE.—A premium of $50 for horses that have never trotted better than 2:30 in public, mile heats, three in five.

2d RACE.—A premium of $50 for horses that have never trotted better than 2:40 in public, mile heats, three in five.

3d RACE.—A premium of $50 for all ages, two mile heats.

FOURTH DAY.

1st RACE.—A premium of $50 for three year olds that have never trotted better than 3:00 in public, mile heats, three in five.

Cynthiana Nursery

Cynthiana, Kentucky.

Every variety of Nursery Stock, J. A. McKEE, - Proprietor.

I TAKE pleasure in offering to my friends and the public generally, a very complete assortment of

TREES, SHRUBS, VINES, &c.

suitable for fall plantings, including a choice lot of 3 year old

STANDARD PEARS,

of such varieties as have pleased me best in my own orchard. Also, I would desire to call particular attention to a specimen lot of the sweet Kentucky

WINE GRAPE,

one and two years old.

Send for complete price list. Come and see or write and enquire for particular stock.

The Paris and London

Paper Clothing Company.

OUTFITS FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

THE undersigned would most respectfully inform the public that the agency for the above, under letters patent, celebrated manufactured Paper Goods, is established, and for the first time introduced in the United States.

Among the various accomplishments of science and art, this may be considered one of the greatest achievements of the age. The reason which these Goods have obtained in Europe for their exquisite elegance, flexibility,

